1974

Rossville, Indiana

For everything there is a season, and
a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up
what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time
to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast
away;
a time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Eccles. 3:1-9.

Lars '74

Am I too busy . . . to hear the bob white's call?
. . .to observe the wondrous honey bee?
. . .to marvel at nature's wardrobe?
Am I so hypnotized by my man-made civilization that I think I can live without nature? Am I too old to learn?
Then maybe it's too late for adults to learn and change. But surely we cannot forsake our children. So . . . I must act responsibly now to do my share to save our world—for with every eagle lost, I lose a part of myself.
National Wildlife
Dec./Jan., 1970

Nature is the glass reflecting God.
Those who are closest to it will know
the true meaning of love and peace.

A year is more than twelve months or four seasons.
It is more than 365 days,
More than a circling around the sun.
A year's time turned into glorious possibility—
Into the wonder that is life.

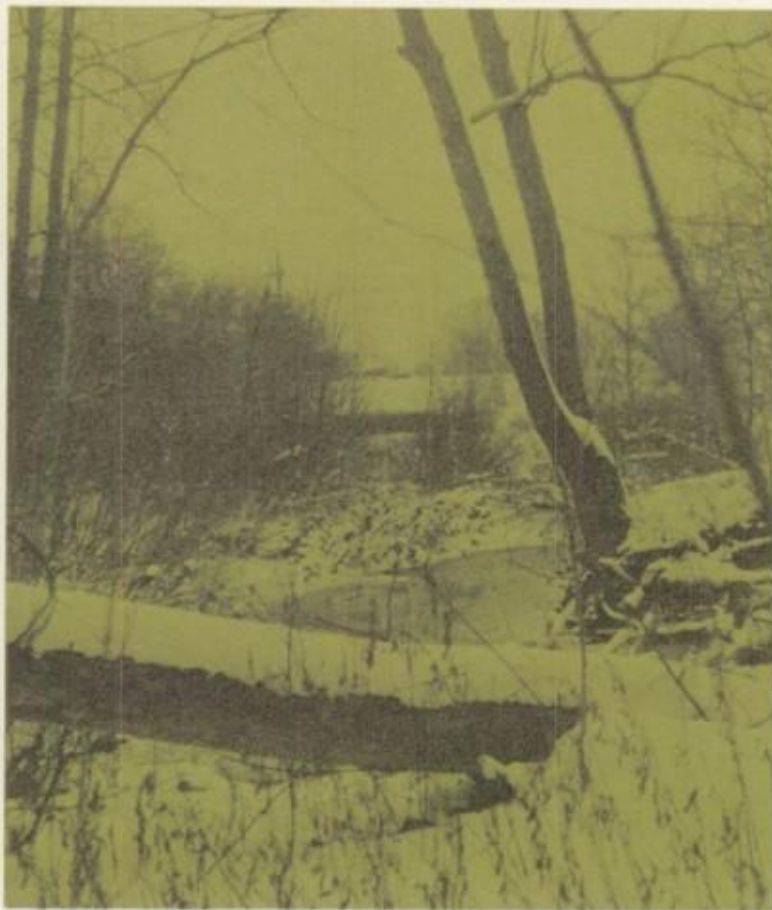

To live is the rarest thing in the world.
Most people exist—that's all.

I am being educated but at times
learn nothing.
I am being educated and at times
think I've learned everything.
The sudden flash of perspective.
The sudden feeling of understanding.
Like pieces of a jig-saw floating in my mind.
It comes together, making a whole.
When I understand, the feeling is exhilarating.
When I don't, the feeling is blank.
I can only try, and sometimes I need to get away . . .
And do the things that make me happy, or the things I know are right; to talk to people about life.
Purdue Dēbris
1972

Learning never shared is knowledge stolen;
loving never shared is knowledge
lost.

Those that bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.

With each rising sun I think of this life as just the beginning. Show kindness and love today . . . for tomorrow's chance may be lost.

I believe in the sun even when it isn't shining.
I believe in love even when I'm alone.
I believe in God even when He is silent.

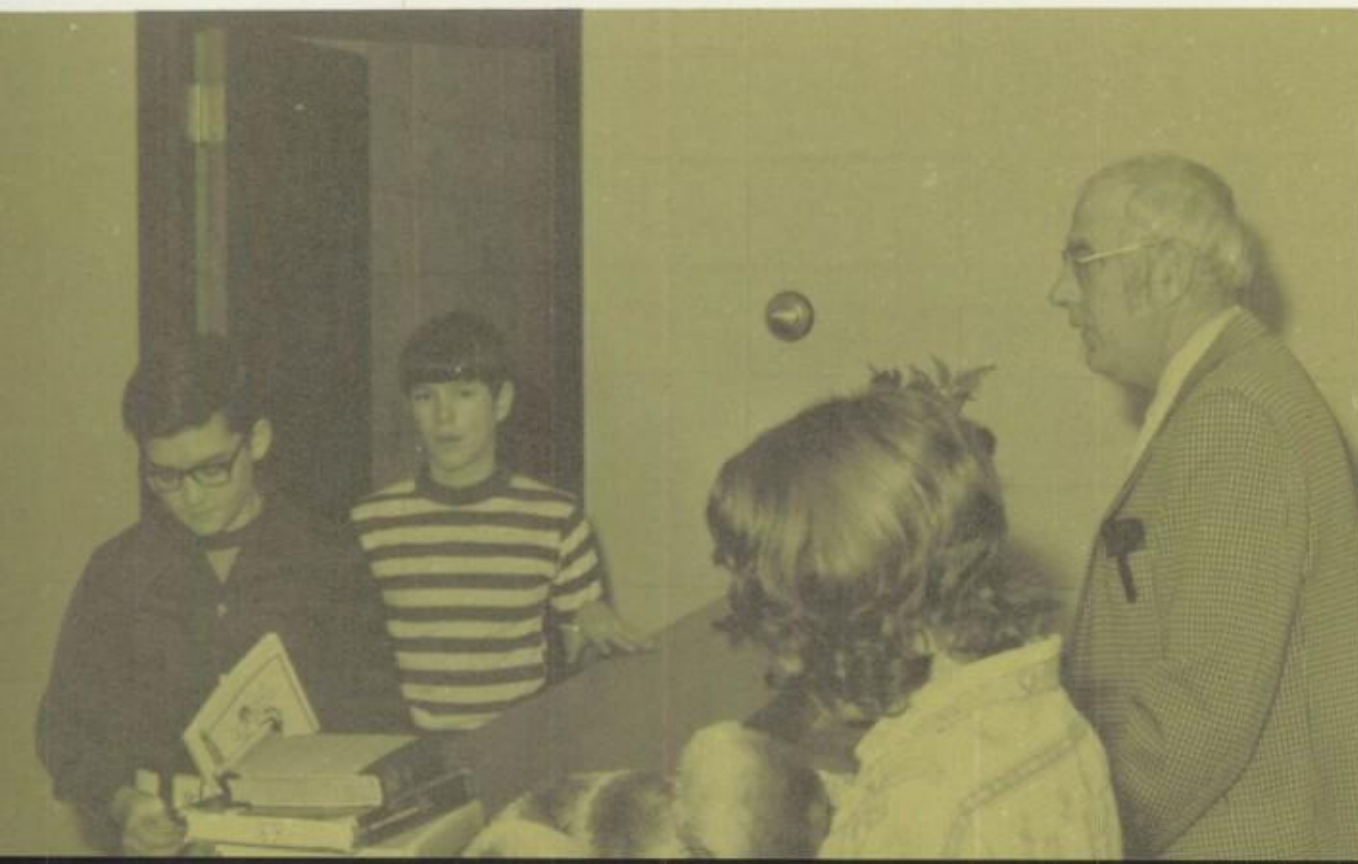

I do not ask to comprehend life . . .
I only take the miracle and say:
Thanks, Lord.
Herbert Brokering

The least I can do for my friend is simply be his friend.

Surely years ago when life was simpler, man looked around him with a sharp sense of wonder at the beauty and variety of the world. We see that same feeling born again in every child who studies a butterfly resting on a petal, or catches his breath at the brilliance of a raindrop. What happens to that sense of wonder? Perhaps we grow up too fast, we become too pre-occupied, too tired, or too sophisticated to hold on to it.

Show Features Renowned Cripenski

The famous selections "Shadrack, Meshack, Abendago," performed a capella by the "Swinging Seniors" under the direction of bushy-haired conductor Markus Cripenski, enthralled the '73 Variety Show audience. Many other musical numbers followed. A special appearance featured the "Funky Faculty," while students talented in singing off key joined voices in "There's a Hole in the Bucket."

Other skits involved deodorants, hypochondriacs, and gymnastics. The "Senior Boys' All-Dancing League" complemented the show with a charming ballet as the grand finale.

SCOTT SHOEMAKER AND MARK CRIPLE play "Old MacDonald" on harmonicas while other students pose as listeners.

DR. PAIN draws patients for sundry reasons; Doug Brovont, oddly enough, seems to contact all the diseases.

EXTREMELY TIDY AND NEAT director Mark Cripe leads the "Swinging Seniors" in the highly entertaining choral presentation.

SUZANNE SKILES enjoys her ballgame to the utmost as Janice Mohler violently glares at her breakfast intruder.

Class of '76 Sets Fall Festival Record

"Oh, we'd better get that haunted house rebuilt! What if we don't? What if the whole thing flops?"

The Class of '76 did get the haunted house built, and it was one of the most successful Fall Festival booths. The sophomores raised over one-thousand dollars, surpassing all other classes in Fall Festival history. New sophomore booths included the haunted house, treasure chest and trinkets, parents' lounge, and kiddie games. The outside booths were abolished so that all activities were contained in the multipurpose room and surrounding rooms.

A tired group of sophomores cleaned up after the closing. They put in a lot of work and time and produced a very profitable Fall Festival.

RHS Amateur Scientists Compete

March 6, 1974, was the date for the RHS Science Fair, and its participants used every day they had to prepare their projects.

Mark Cripe and Scott Shoemaker placed first in Senior Division, Robert Smith and Terry Raber were second, and Ron Brown and Russ Beard placed third. In the Junior Division, Jennifer Colby and Carol Knapp tied for first with Jeff Jarrett and Steve Hill. Kathy Freestone and Mary Stevens, David Brown and Alan Kelly, Julie Frey and Mary Clendenning placed second. In third place were Cindy Crow, Jeff Miller, and Julie Flora and Eileen Brovont. Honorable Mention went to Rick Thomas and Keith Patrick, Kim Gochenour and Lori Miller, and Greg Woodruff.

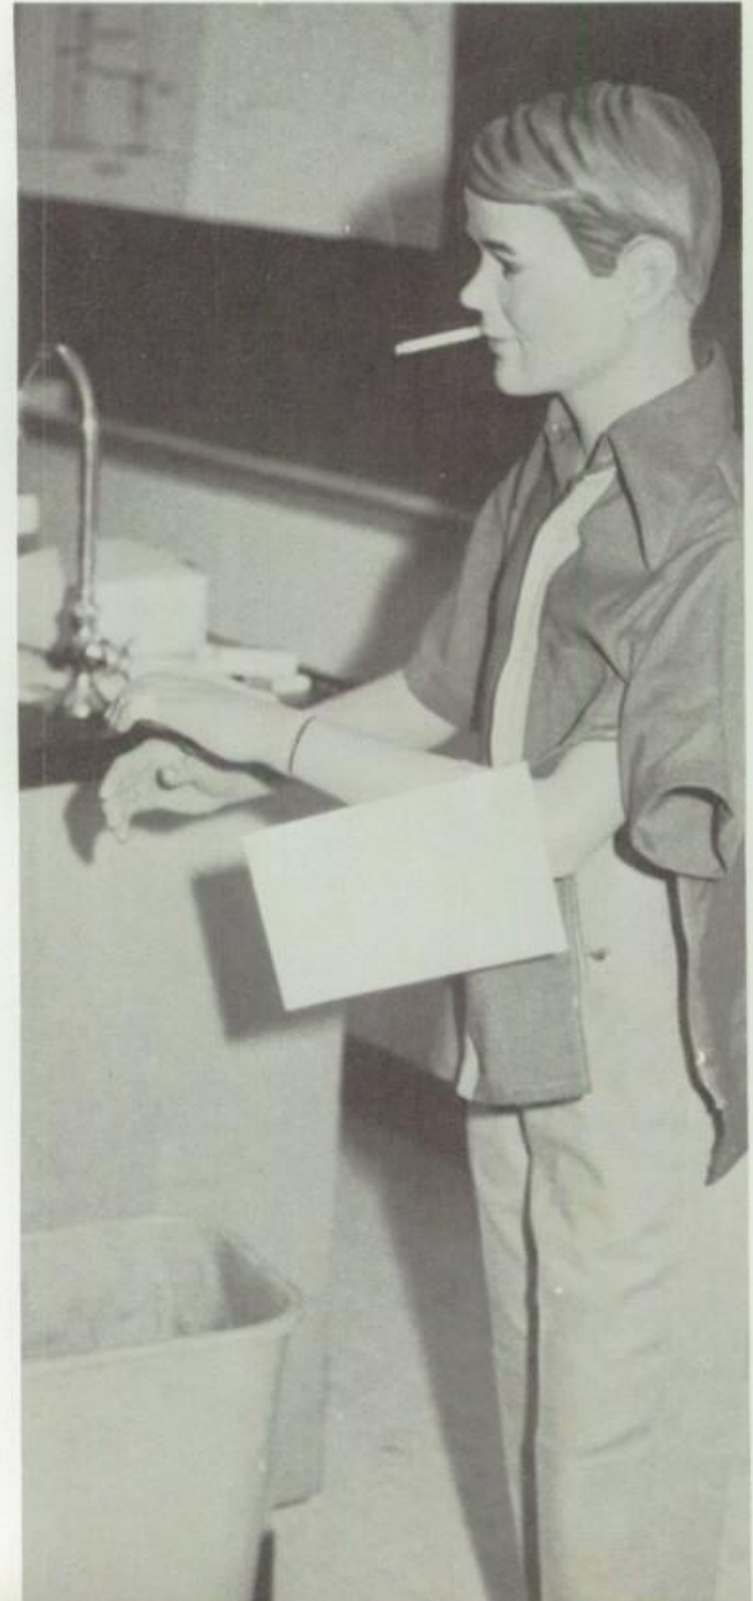

SCOTT SHOEMAKER puts the final touches on the first place entry in the Senior Division, showing the relation of math to music.

JEFF JARRETT projects his scientific thoughts to the possibility of protecting the household with a burglar alarm.

RON BROWN AND RUSSELL BEARD take a closer look at the cow's heart used in their Science Fair project.

STUDENTS ANXIOUSLY AWAIT the results of the judging as they exchange some ideas on their projects.

Bonnie and "Big Red" Reign in '74

Seconds seemed like hours to all those who awaited the cue to take their positions on the court. Rossville's Homecoming procession began under the direction of Jerry Disney with "Close to You."

Steve Achors, Student Council President, had the honor of announcing the Queen and King selection made by the student body. Screams, applause, and tears dominated as Dave Bondurant, Mr. Basketball, crowned Bonnie Gascho the 1974 Queen.

Bonnie and Dave are now Rossville royalty.

JUNIOR REPRESENTATIVE Colleen Brenne- man and Manager Bruce Schwartz patiently await the crowing ceremonies.

A HAPPY Terri Marcotte, the Freshman Home- coming representative, is escorted by Senior Kevin Andrew.

A TRULY AMAZED Bonnie Gascho gasps as she is declared the 1974 Homecoming Queen. Her escort, Bruce Miller, urges her to receive her crown.

STILL NOT BELIEVING IT'S TRUE, Bonnie pauses with Dave Bondurant before the procession marches out of the gym.

A TREMULOUS BASKETBALL KING, Dave Bondurant places the sparkling tiara on the head of Queen Bonnie Gascho.

BETSY COMBS jokes around, helping to ease the tension before the candidates, representatives, and escorts line up.

Athletic Department Captures Honors

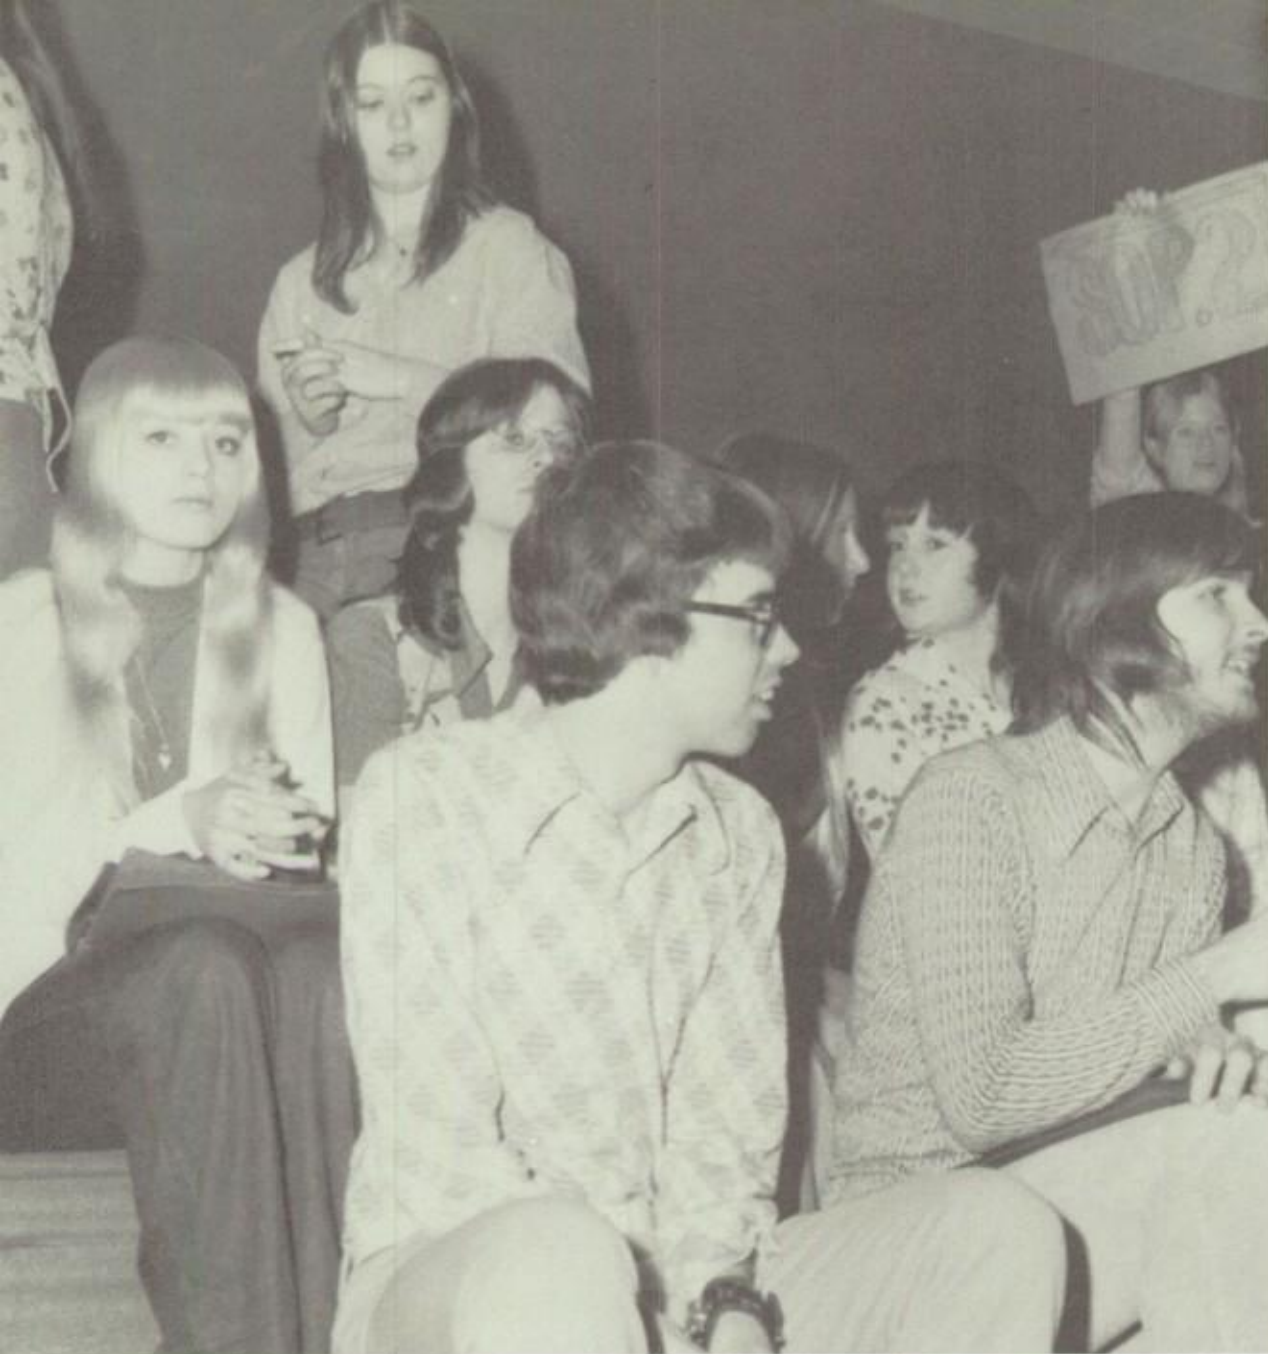

"All right, Gary. Hurry, hurry! We're out in front. That's the way. Keep on trikin'!!"

The annual Senior Trike Race changed from the traditional spring race to October 14, 1973. Organizations rushed to get their trikes built, and six entries were accepted. They were entered by the sophomore class, Science Club, the Athletic Department, the senior class, Student Council and the RHS Band. After the grueling 35 laps—ten for both boys, five for both girls, and then five extra laps—the Athletic Department won the race and trophy. The seniors made a profit of 75 dollars.

BETSY COMBS ADDS a little go-power to her three-wheeled speedster by applying the old scooter principle.

Prairie Hosts Festival

To the band and chorus members at RHS one of the the big highlights of the year is the County Music Festival. It was held at Clinton Prairie on March 15, 1974. The band was directed by James C. Patton from Madison Heights, and chorus was directed by Gene Poston from Broad Ripple in Indianapolis. Both band and chorus comprised of students from Rossville, Clinton Central, and Clinton Prairie in just a few hours of rehearsal gave the audience a great show.

SOME ROSSVILLE CHORUS MEMBERS chatter among themselves as they wait for others to find seats in their sections.

JUNIORS SANDY, ROSIE, COLLEEN, AND SUSIE await instructions for their section from Mr. Gene Poston.

BAND MEMBERS LARRY CANINE AND DAVE Bondurant prepare to leave the rehearsal as the chorus arrives and finds the proper selections.

Prom Honors Debbie and Kevin

DAVID TISLOW finds out that the crown will stay on Kevin's head as he crowns him 1974 Prom King at the Key West Shrimp House.

KEVIN AND DEB enjoy the fun and excitement during the special King and Queen dance played in their honor by the band.

Traditionally the RHS prom is sponsored by the junior class for the seniors. The event is the main project during the junior year. Some money earned through the magazine sales goes toward prom expenses.

Approximately 30 juniors converged on Key West Shrimp House in Frankfort the day before the prom to decorate.

By 10:00 P.M. the decorators had dropped exhausted to the floor covered with angel hair and crepe paper. But they had created a beautiful banquet room.

The formal dinner and dance began at 6:00 P.M., April 20, and lasted until midnight. Music was provided by the "Cosmopolitans." The after-prom party was held at Rose Lanes in West Lafayette.

DEBBIE PERRY steps out to accept her crown and flowers after being chosen queen as Mark Thomas and Bruce Miller clap their approval.

SENIOR LUANA THARP anxiously awaits the announcement of the 1974 Prom Queen finalist as she watches the other candidates.

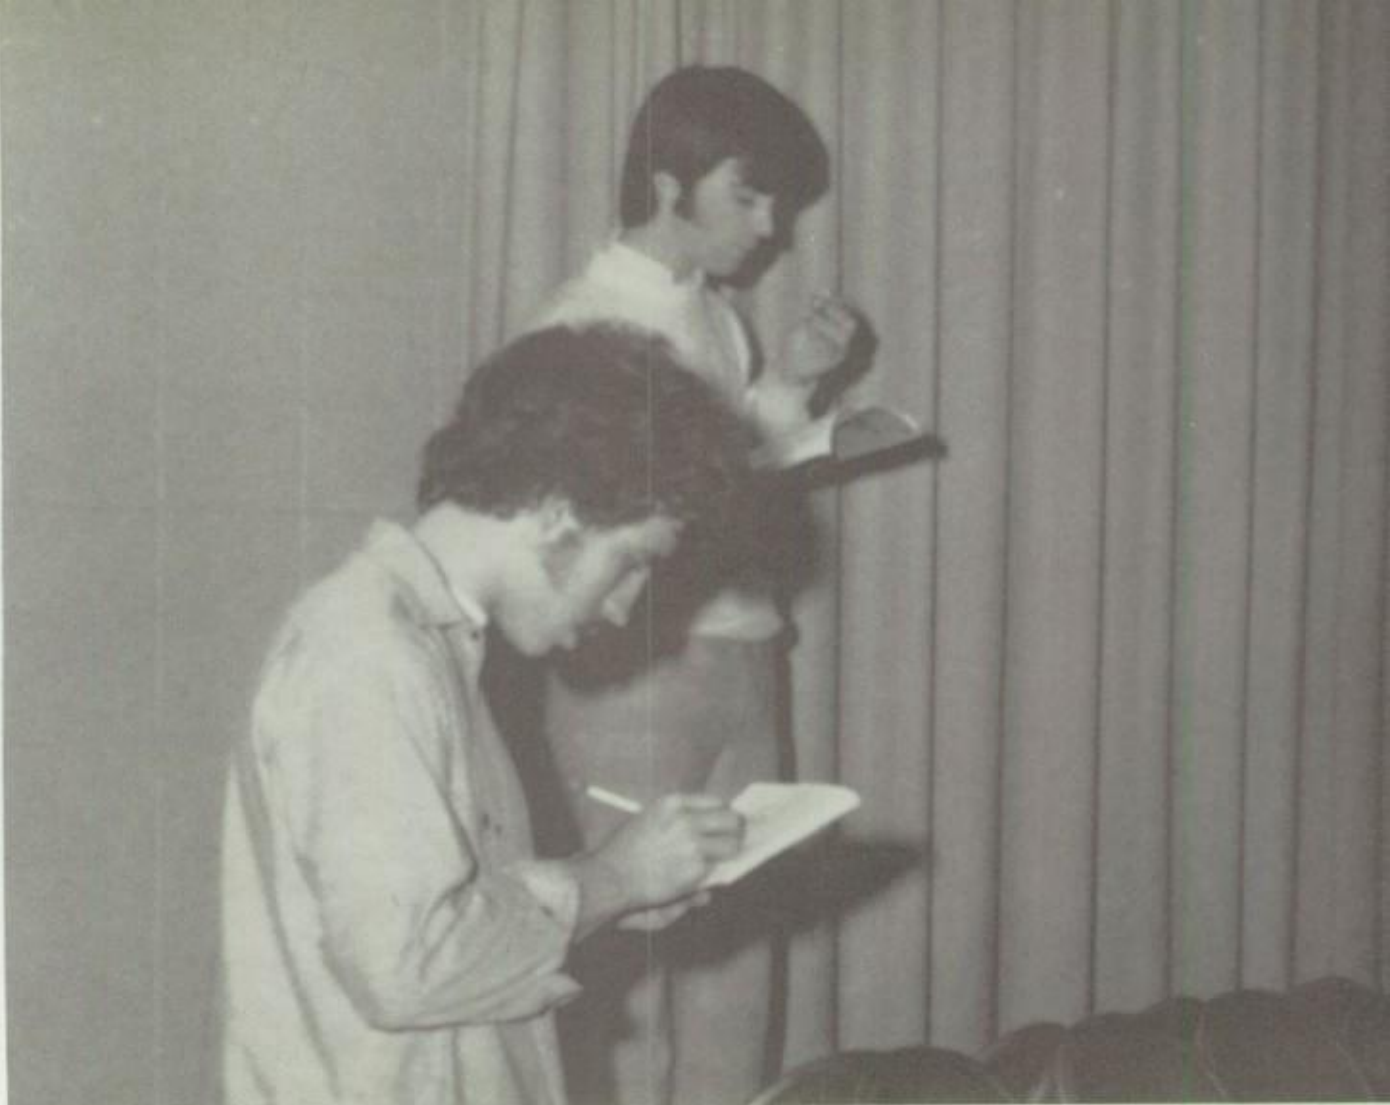

MUSIC FOR THE '74 PROM was provided by the "Cosmopolitans." They played everything from movie themes to contemporary songs.

JUNIOR DEBBIE WARD places the tiara on Senior Deb Perry's head as the queen carefully helps her adjust it.

Cast Rehearses for Annual Production

DOUG BROVONT hides behind the curtain as Velma Wagoner squawks teasingly at him during some behind the scenes fun.

MR. EILER, the director of The Silver Whistle, explains blocking of the first act to the cast as he follows the play in the book.

This year the Drama Club produced The Silver Whistle. It is the story of Oliver Erwenter, who tries to make the old people at the Church of John Rest Home feel alive and young again. Using a fake birth certificate, he becomes a patient and attempts to convince the old folks that they can be as young as they think they can be.

KIM BAILEY and SCOTT PETERSON gab while Assistant Director Linda Phebus and Cindy Skiles look on. Bonnie Gascho stares at a Pretzel.

CAST MEMBERS ponder over what move they'll make next as Julie Jackson is instructed to go down center and stop.

Old Folks Come Alive in Silver Whistle

JULIE totally disagrees with Doug Brovont's talk of making the old folks young as the others ponder the idea.

MAYBE HARD TO BELIEVE, but Janice Mohler and Dan Phebus are slowly succumbing to Doug's charm.

Rossville Honors Hornets

Rossville honored its Hornets this year at the annual Basketball Banquet. There was a new twist to things in that members of the girls' basketball team also received awards. Following the meal which was provided by parents and folks attending the banquet, the ceremony began. Bruce Beisel received the rebound award, and Larry Canine earned the free throw award. Larry and Kenny Sheets shared the Most Valuable Player honors. Chuck Gaylor received the mental attitude award. In girls' basketball, Rosie Crumpacker received the MVP award, and Donna Tharp merited the free throw award.

MANY PEOPLE in the Rossville Community show their Hornet support by contributing to the annual Basketball Banquet.

Seniors Visit New York

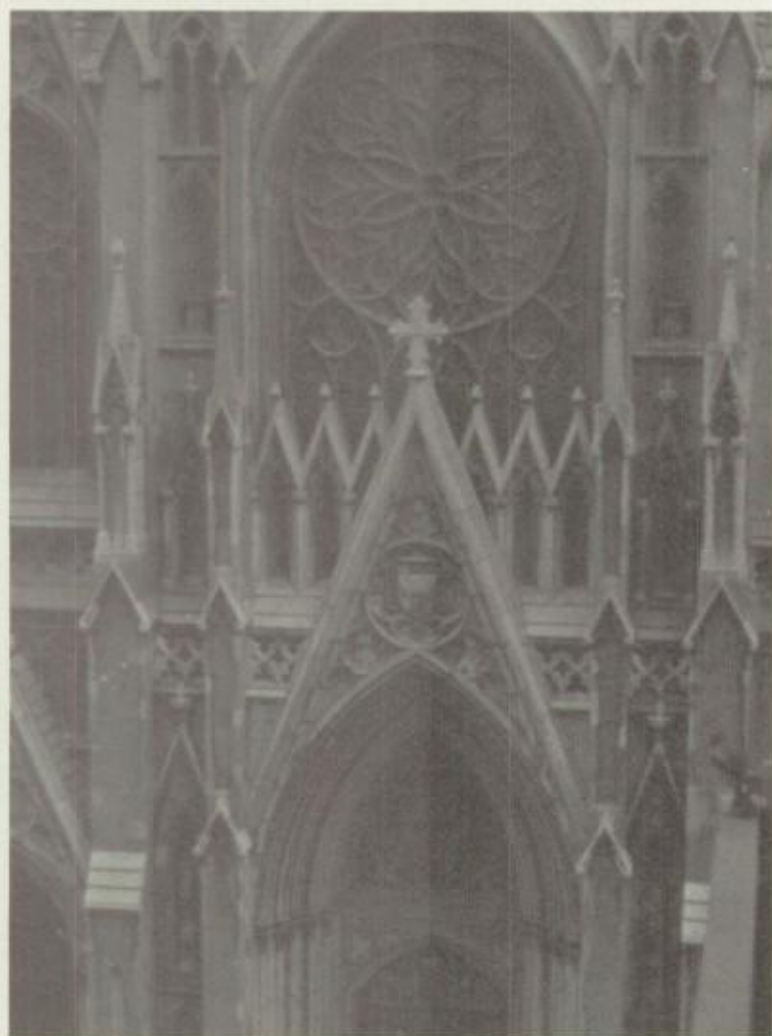

After all those gruelling, cold, tiring, tedious, sometimes boring, sometimes fun paper drives, the Senior Class finally made enough money to go on their trip to New York on May 10. They took a jet from Weir Cook Airport in Indianapolis and arrived in New York early that morning. The class took in all the famous landmarks of New York—Statue of Liberty, Rockefeller Center, Chinatown, Forty-second Street, and among other things—Skid Row. After the tour they caught the plane back home and arrived late that night.

A SMILING MIKE STONEBRAKER thoroughly enjoys his morning jet flight to New York City on the 1974 Senior trip.

ONE OF THE STOPS the seniors made was at the Rockefeller Center. This picture shows the pedestrians and busy morning traffic.

ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL churches in New York is Saint Patrick's, and the class trip included this landmark.

INCLUDED IN THE SITE SEEING TRIP to New York was an excursion through New York's famous Chinatown.

FORTY-SECOND STREET, famous for its over fifty movie houses is crowded with buses, cars, and people as the city wakes up.

Honors' Day Recognizes Students

Scholarship, attendance awards, home ec, science, dramatics, creative writing, language, and sports' awards are among the list of awards presented to students on Honors' Day. Honors' Day is designed to give outstanding Rossville High School Students recognition for their hard-earned grades, talents, and achievements. This year Honors' Day was shortened by having the academic awards on May 9, and the sports' awards on May 16.

SENIOR DAVE MCCLURE smilingly returns to the audience after receiving an award on Honors' Day.

SPEECH COACH Jerald Eiler distributes NFL certificates to "Degree of Honor" members during the awards convocation.

MARSHA BEARD, voted the most outstanding band member, accepts the John Phillip Sousa Award from Mr. Disney.

JUNIOR BOYS offer their applause to the award winner as she walks up the aisle to receive her pin.

SENIOR BETSY COMBS is looking on as her classmates and friends accept awards for their accomplishments.

Seniors Walk Into Their World

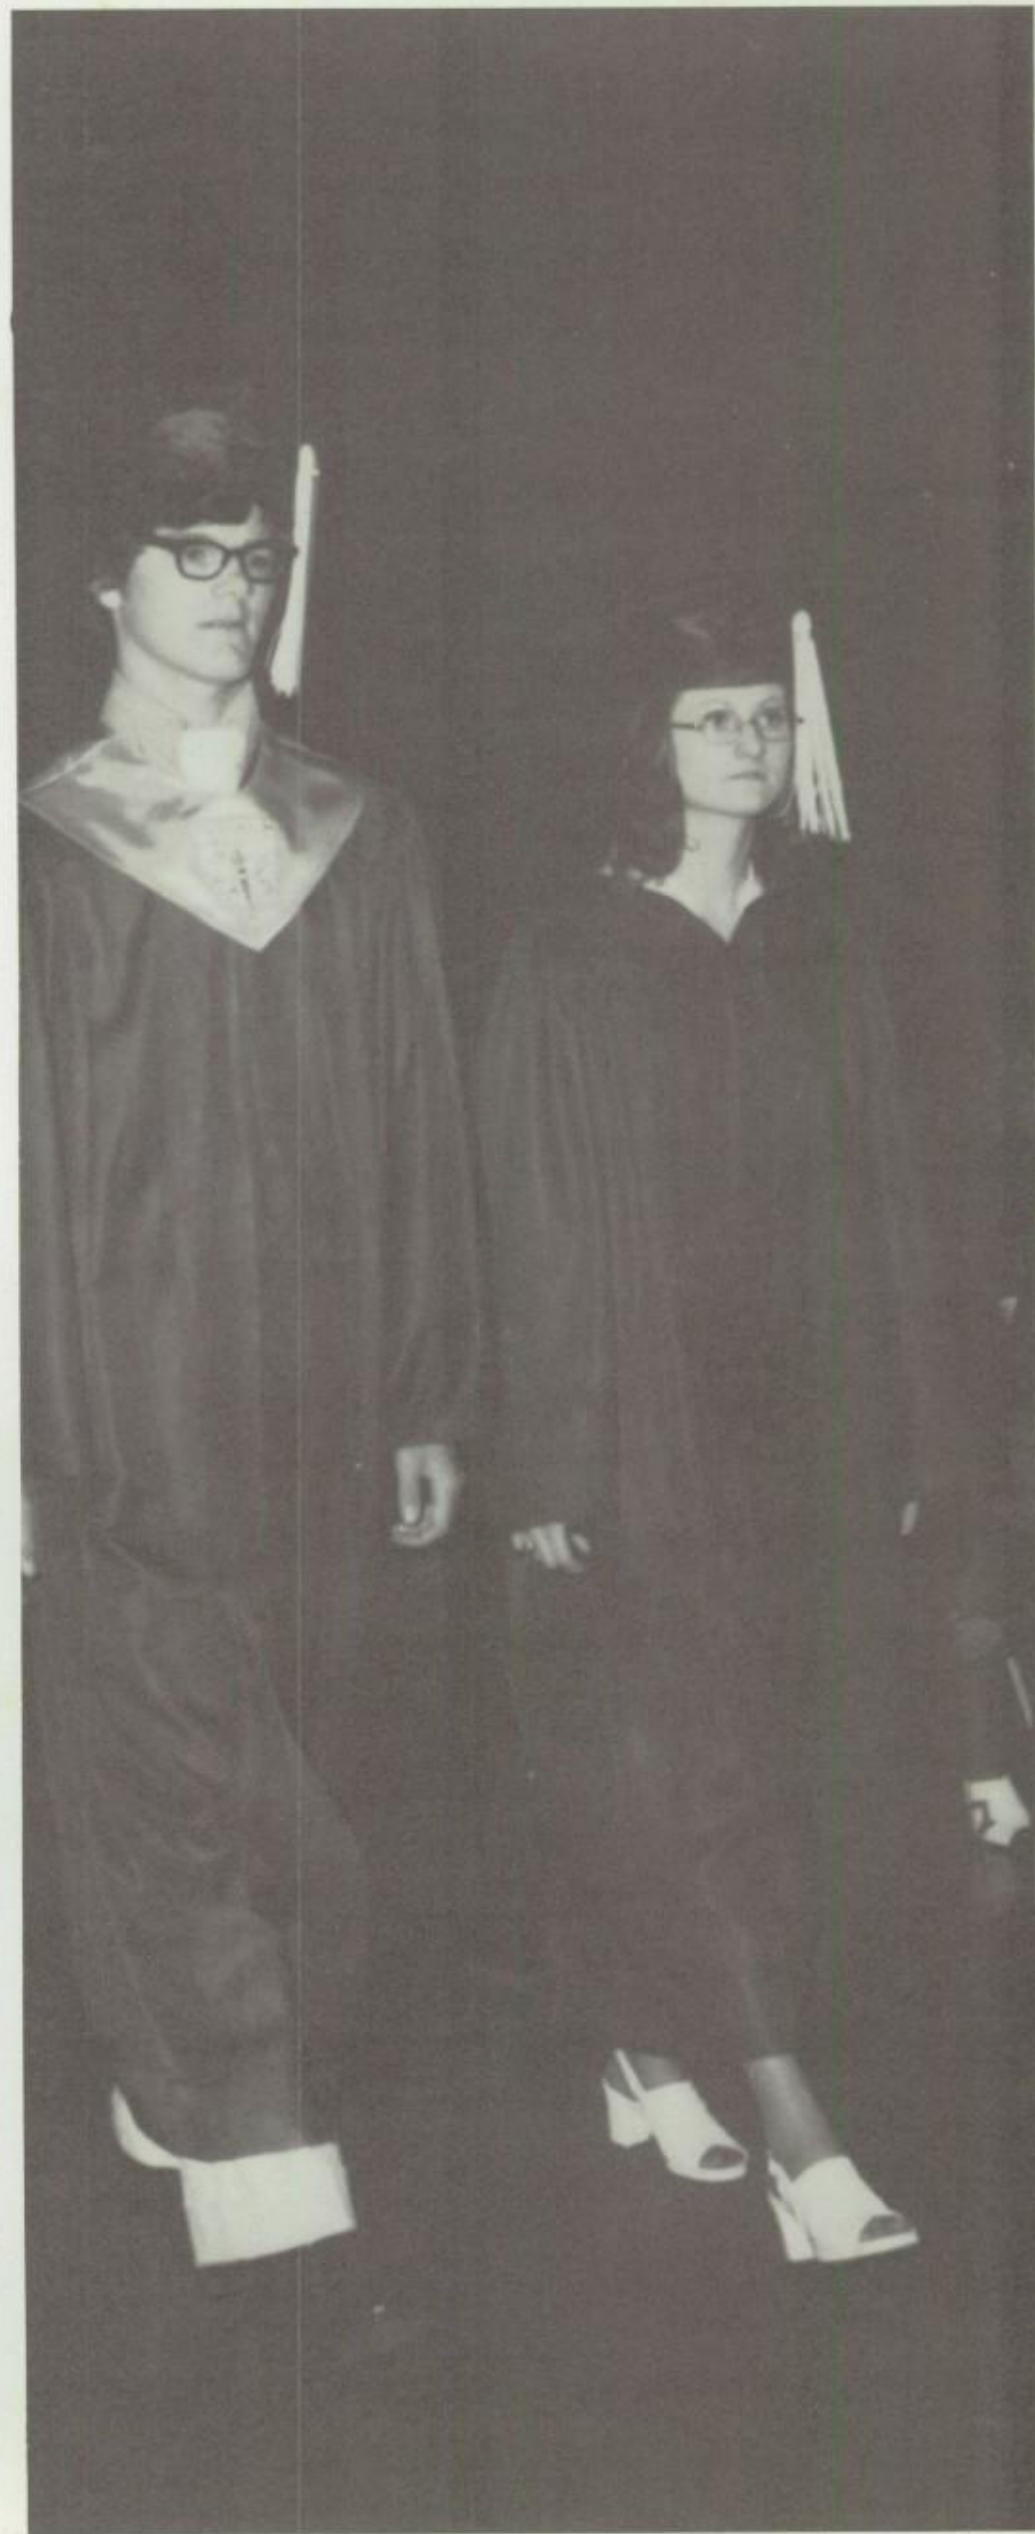

Graduation—a time to think about the future—a time to say good-bye to all the friends one has made in these past twelve years—a time when students realize just how much they've matured. What will become of everyone? What will they do? Where will everyone go?

This is why graduation is so important. For most of the kids it's the last time they will be together as a class—possibly the last time they'll ever see each other again.

On May 12, 1974, the Senior class was together for the last time. After the traditional strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and "Hall of Ivy," class President Mark Cripe gave his summary of the twelve years in school. John Graves, class representative, spoke on what the future might hold after graduation, and Marsha Brovont, valedictorian, compared graduation to the never ending current of life. In 50 short minutes, the class of 1974 crossed into a whole new world.

JUNIOR CLASS GRADUATION REPRESENTATIVE Marlys Voss solemnly stands as escort to the 1974 seniors.

NINETEEN SEVENTY-FOUR seniors Scott Shoemaker and Melissa Metzger proceed slowly up the aisle to "Pomp and Circumstance."

VALEDICTORIAN Marsha Brovont speaks on the class's motto, "The Current of Life Is Ever Onward."

HIGH SCHOOL CHORAL DIRECTOR Mrs. Caddell leads the mixed and activity period choruses in the traditional "Halls of Ivy."

Sports

To every attempt there is a season under heaven:
a time for honor,
and a time for defeat;
a time to band together for
a goal,
a time for individual pride;
and a time for self-sacrifice.

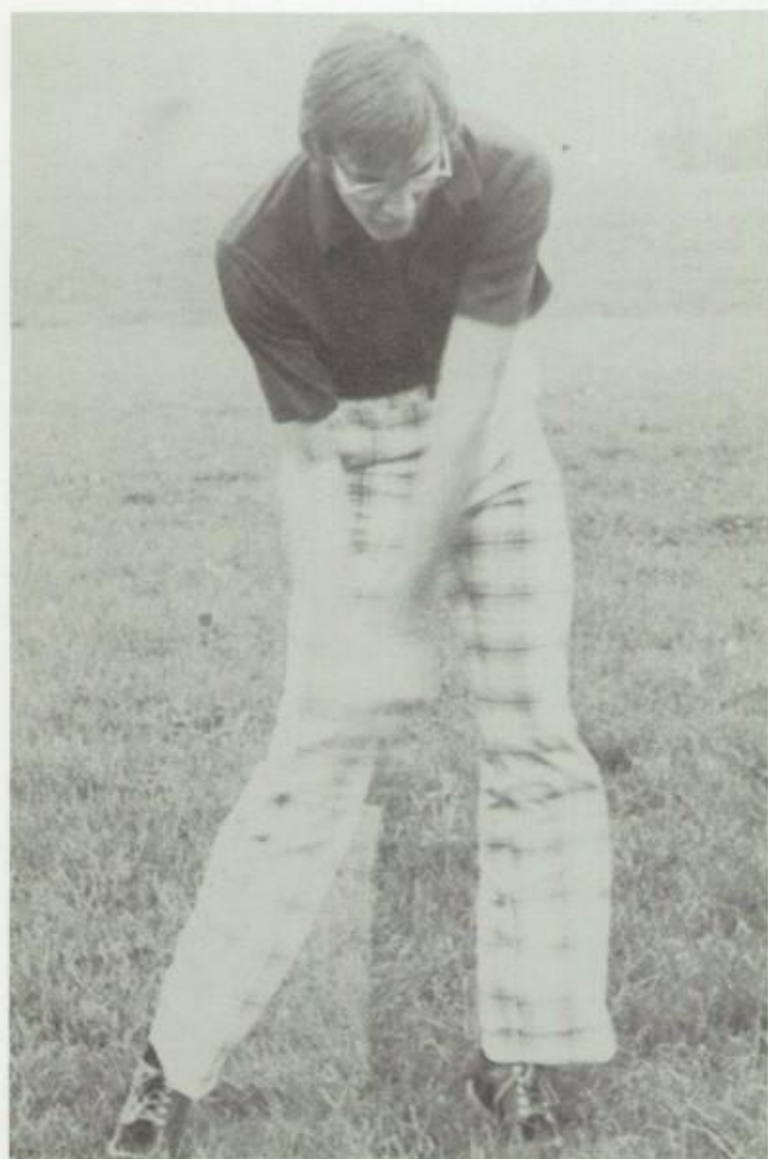

Golf Team Improves

Although the Golf Team had only a mediocre year, the participants improved over last year. The scores were lower than last year, and more people were involved.

The team finished 1-6 this year and had six home meets and one away meet for conference. At the spring sports' banquet, awards were given to the members, and Bruce Beisel received the low medalist award.

BRUCE BEISEL, this year's low medalist, uses a 5-wood to drive from the rough onto the third hole green.

GREG ENOCH tees off from the first hole at the Angel Hill Golf Course during a home meet in the spring.

Little League Includes 70 Members

Little League had over 70 players that were split into four teams, each team having a minor and major league. Each team played six games and then played in the play-offs. The number one team played the fourth place team, and the second place team played the third place team. Then the winners of these games met for the championship.

The championship team went on to play the all-stars and lost. Little League was over for another season.

GARY McCARTY warms up in the batter's box while awaiting for his turn to bat at Little League practice.

Baseball Starts With 6-5

This year's baseball season had a tough job: improving last year's record. Last year, for the first time, Rossville's baseball team won the sectional. This year, the team seems well on its way. At the time of this writing, the team is 6-5.

Starting with two losses to Logansport, RHS had a win over Clinton Central, then split a double header with Delphi. They split another double header with Maconaquah, then lost to Central Catholic. Next came two wins over Sheridan and Carroll. Twenty-two games were scheduled, not including the tourney.

PREPARING TO either strike out or get on base, Steve Mulligan loosens up in the batter's box prior to his turn at bat.

SCOTT SHOEMAKER warms up with his battery mate Doug Brocont as he prepares as starting pitcher against Sheridan.

BRAD GOLDEN, first base coach, sends senior Dave Bondurant on to second base on a steal attempt.

SCOTT SHOEMAKER and Gary Kelly loosen up as they prepare to bat against the Carroll Cougars at a home game.

Junior High, Frosh Compete In Five Meets

Track has no won-lost record because each meet usually includes more than two teams. The teams never came in first in any meet, but they did not place last either. In the Hoosier Conference with Ron McColley coaching for his first year, the Freshmen came in sixth with the Junior High finishing seventh.

RON FICKLE, jumping a bar higher than himself, gets ready to kick his legs up and over the bar.

SPECTATORS urge the track team on as Kris Jones finishes ahead of his opponent for a first in the mile.

RHS Fields Male and Female Track Teams

The girls' and boys' track teams suffered the same problem this year as did other sports: inexperience.

The girls were in their second year of track, and Miss Carter was in her first year as coach. They had a small team but practiced faithfully almost every day. They lost both of their track meets, but they gained valuable experience for next year. The boys had a disappointing year and were also faced with a small team. Bruce Beisel received the MVP award as he often received firsts in the high jump, discus, and shot put. Bruce Miller was the only senior on the team, gutting it out in the two-mile and often placing first.

BRIAN YODER, Bruce Calloway, and Jeff Stevens relax while waiting for their events to start at a home meet.

TRACKER BRUCE CALLOWAY, junior, vigorously executes a high flying leap from the long jump board.

GARY KELLY extends his arms trying to stretch for a few more inches and capture first place in the broad jump.

BRUCE BEISEL uses the "Fosbury Flop" to reach a height of 5'9" while Matt Tucciarelli gets ready to raise the bar.

Joy Carter, Terri Marcotte, and Joni Castor.

Cross Country Ends With 5-2 Season

The Cross Country team, after winning the conference and going to the regional last year, again had a winning season this year.

There wasn't much past experience on the squad, with only four returning varsity lettermen and two B-team lettermen to make the team. Despite this, the team went 5-2 for the season and finished second, fifth, and tenth in the Carroll Invitational, the Hoosier Conference, and the sectional meets, respectively.

With Coach Jones at the head, the boys started running four miles each day to get in shape even before school started. The scenery never varied much as the boys ran around the school grounds or occasionally ventured a run to Edna Mills and back.

Kegglers Meet in Frankfort

As seven people try to squeeze into a car built for five, the average bowling team member thinks, "Egads! Not again!" But it happens every Monday as the RHS Bowling Team heads off to the Frankfort Bowl N' Bun. When they arrive about four o'clock, they begin to play their opponents. The Rossville team is divided into four groups led by Curt Weller, Doug Egly, Jeff Kelly, and Greg Enoch. Often the opposition for the matches is Clinton Central who also practices there.

DAVE TISLOW anticipates a gutter ball as Jim Reed hopes for a strike during one of many Monday practices.

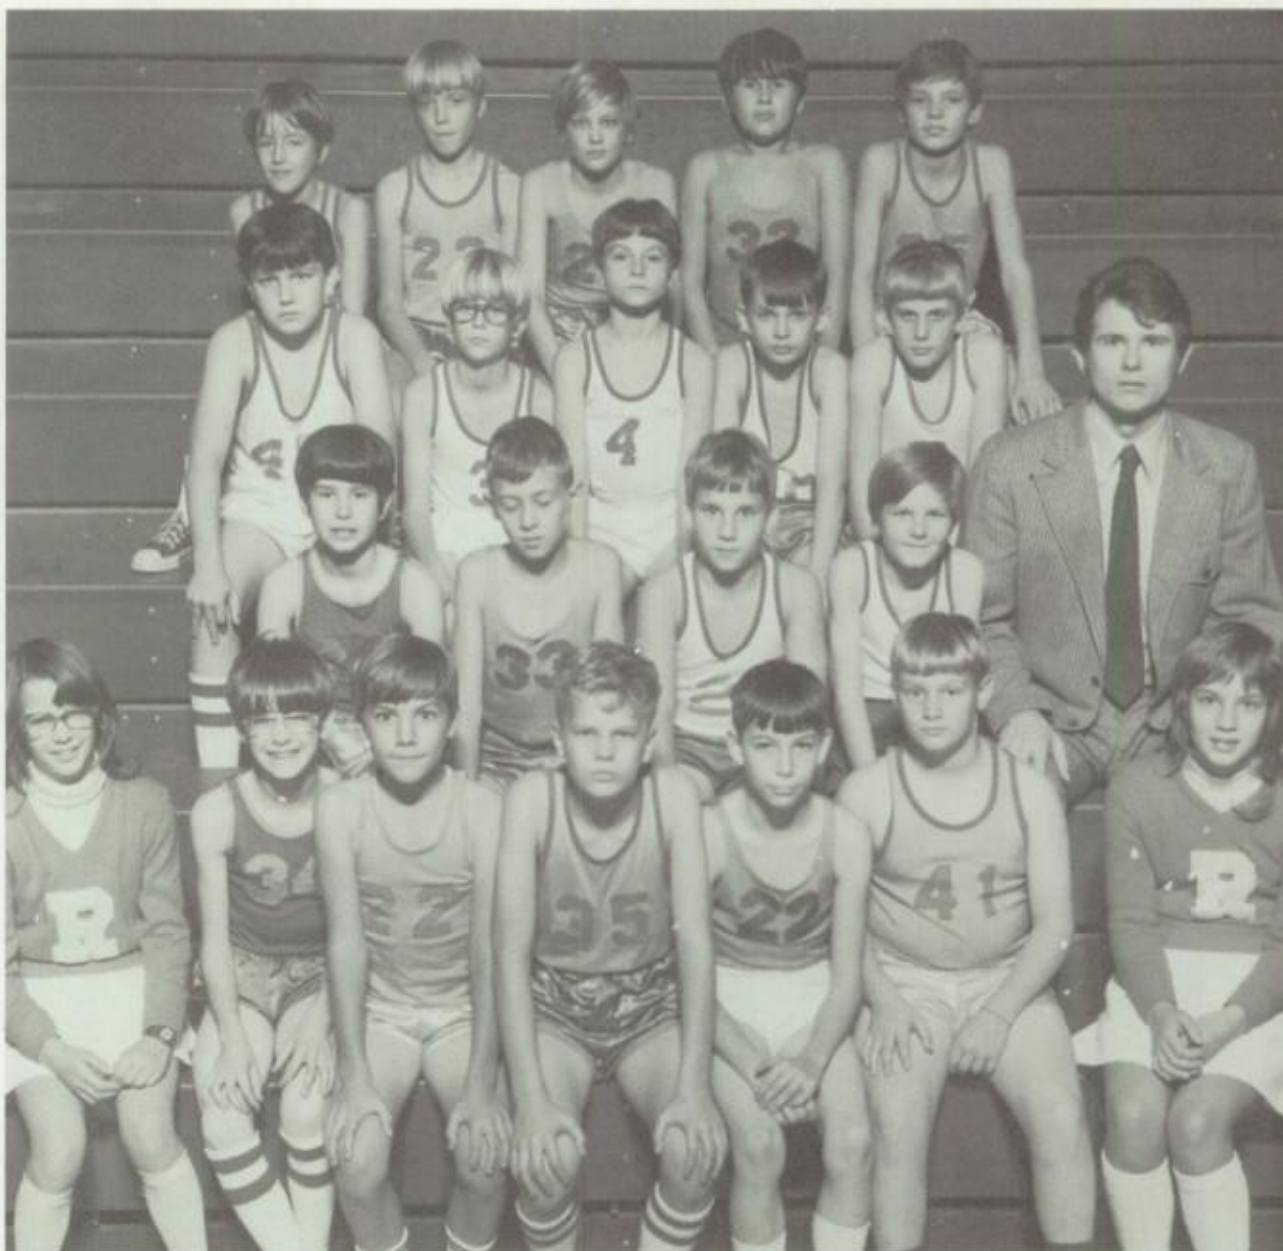

"AND ANOTHER SPARE puts us 12 pins ahead," Curt Weller observes as he and Greg Enoch keep score during a practice session.

WITH AN UNDERHANDED LAY-UP, Kris Jones scores at the end of a fast break against the Benton Central Bisons.

GARY KELLY goes high above his defenders to score on an easy two foot jump shot in the last quarter.

GREG ANDERSON struggles for the rebound while Jeff Stevens moves in from his position to try batting the ball away.

AS MICKEY WHITLOCK tenses for an anticipated loose ball struggle, Kris Jones and Greg Anderson battle for the rebound.

Hornets Sting Opponents For Plus Season

Rossville once again had a good year in basketball as the team finished 18-4 (winning all the home games), tied for first place in the Hoosier Conference, and won the North White Tourney. The squad ranked first in the Lafayette area in winning percentage and ended with an offensive average of 76 points and a defensive average of 59 points.

In Sectional play, Rossville vied Carroll in the first game. Though the Hornets defeated the Cougars during regular season play, the team met a much improved group. Rossville led most of the game, but the score was tied at the end of four quarters. After an overtime, the score was 84-81 in favor of Carroll.

LARRY CANINE drives the base line and goes under the basket for a shot, leaving the Bison defensive men flat-footed.

ALTHOUGH DOUBLE TEAMED, Kenny Sheets fires a jump shot from twelve feet during the Homecoming game.

COACH MIKE JONES inspired the crowd and the team with a pep talk during a seventh period pep rally for the Sectional.

DAVE BONDURANT, a starting forward, drives up and under against the Bison center during fourth quarter action.

BRUCE MILLER is down on the floor, but he achieved his objective as he held his ground and drew a charging foul on his opponent.

BRUCE BEISEL brings down the rebound and looks to release an outlet pass to an open teammate as Dave Bondurant and Larry Canine break down court.

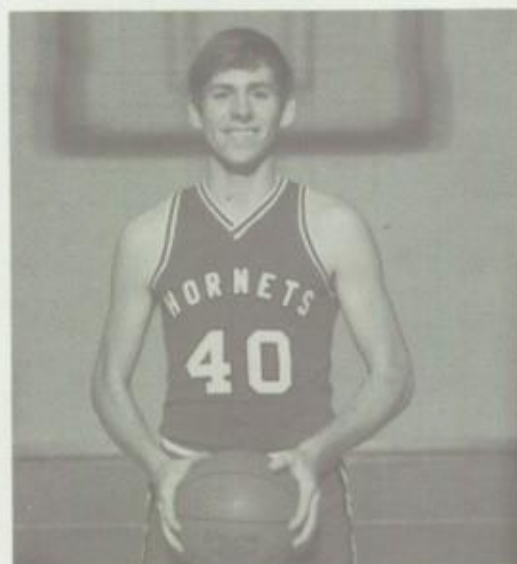

KENNY SHEETS, after making one of his season high steals, scores an easy basket against his defender.

Canine, Bondurant, Sheets, Beisel

LARRY CANINE shared the MVP award with Kenny Sheets this year. He was on the Clinton County second team and on the All-Tourney at North; he also was co-captain of the squad and received the free throw percentage award. Larry was first in scoring with 15.9 average, second in rebounds with 7.8 per game, and third in both field goal accuracy (48%) and assists (2.6 per game).

DAVID BONDURANT was chosen "Mr. Basketball." He was second among starters in field goal accuracy (49%), third in rebounding with a 7.7 standard; he had a 13.1 point average and had a 2.6 assist average. He made All-Tourney at North White and was named to the Clinton County second team as well as the All-Conference team.

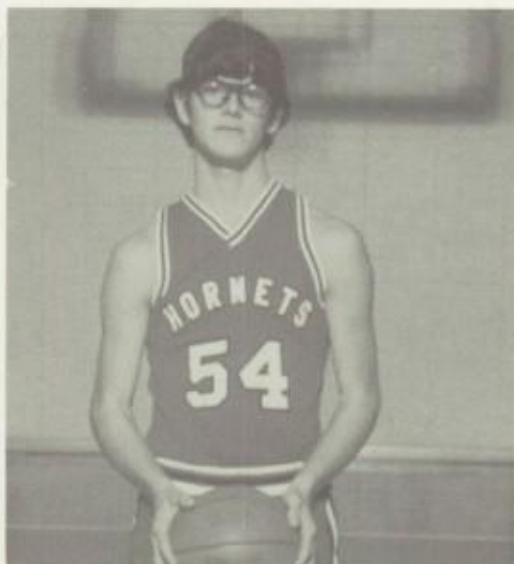

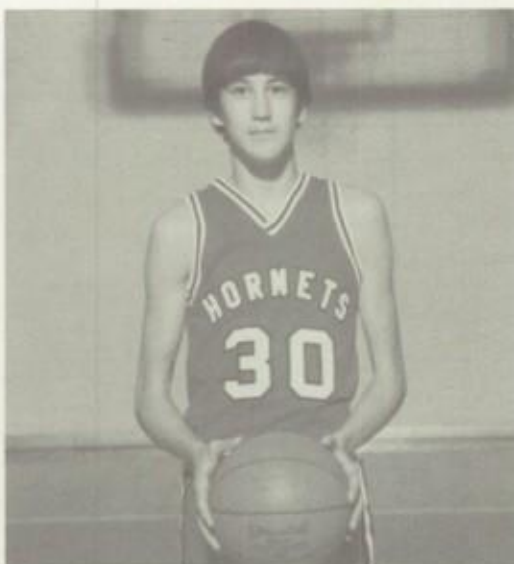

BRUCE BEISEL set a new rebound record with 23, and he averaged 15.8 a game, entitling him to receive the rebound award. Among the starters, he was first in field goal accuracy with 50% and was second in scoring with a 14.7 average. Bruce was All-Tourney at North White, and he was elected to the first team for both Clinton County and the Lafayette area.

KENNY SHEETS was first in steals (54), second in assists (2.7 average), and third in scoring with an average of 14.6 points per game. He participated in 22 games and had a rebound average of 4.9, which is high for a guard. He was All-Tourney at North White, All-Conference, Clinton County and Lafayette area second teams. Kenny shared MVP honors with Larry Canine.

Named All-Conference, All-Tourney

BRUCE MILLER was a starting guard along with Sheets, and he started 22 games. He finished first in assists (76) and second in steals (38). He had a 6.5 point average and shot a 46% field goal percentage.

SCOTT SHOEMAKER, co-captain of the squad, was the valuable sixth man, often starting in place of an injured starter or coming off the bench to replace a starter. He filled his position by finishing with a 7.9 point average, hitting 49% of his shots. He played in all 22 games and had a 2.5 assist average and a 4.8 rebound average.

CHUCK GAYLOR played in 14 games this year, and was an important factor with the squad. When the team tired of the monotonous practice drills or tired during a game, it was he who picked up their morales and encouraged them. He was rewarded for his efforts when he received the mental attitude award.

BRUCE CALLOWAY played in all but one game for a total of 52 quarters. He tied for sixth on the team steals with 27 and was sixth in assists with 76.

GARY KELLY had the second highest field goal percentage of the team with 60%, hitting 47 of 74 shots. He played in 17 games and finished with a 4.2 point average and 2.3 rebounds per game.

STEVE MULLIGAN had more playing time on the varsity team than any other sophomore, getting into 11 games. He had the highest field goal percentage with 62%, while averaging 3.7 points and 2.3 rebounds per game.

Maggart Squad Wins Play-offs

With larger teams and more seniors than usual, the intramural basketball games became more competitive and more balanced as each team won at least three games and lost at least four. Rivalries between the teams were as intense as that among varsity competitors, and upsets were frequent. Tempers flared occasionally, and a technical was handed out here and there by such referees as Sponsor Wayne Pearl and ex-captains Randy Ticen and David Kessler.

Although Bruce Schwartz's team finished first during the season, the team finished second in the play-offs, beaten by Randy Maggart's team that captured first place honors. Sid Paul's five finished third with Bob Adam's team coming in last.

Girls Vie In Competitive Sports

Rossville High girls' athletics have come a long way. For the second year a basketball and volleyball team have been sponsored. Sponsor Joy Carter held practice sessions four days a week to prepare the girls for the scheduled games. Because girls' competitive sports have been lax in the past, the 73-74 season was one of building, learning, and experiencing both defeat and victory.

SLIDING IN under a Carrol Cougar serve, Mary Treece endeavors to loft the volleyball to the front line for an easy spike.

TIGHTLY GUARDED by her Frankfort opponent, Rosie Crumpacker reverses her dribble in an attempt to get free for a driving lay-up.

Carter, Terri Marcotte, Julie Jackson, Terri Gable, Donna Tharp, Penny Phillips, Debbie Frey, Rose Bowen, and Denise Turpin.

Clubs

To every life there is its purpose under heaven:
a time to create,
a time to learn,
a time to express
a time to be silent;
a time to lead;
a time to follow;
a time to be one;
and a time to become a member.

Happiness Is FHA, SSS

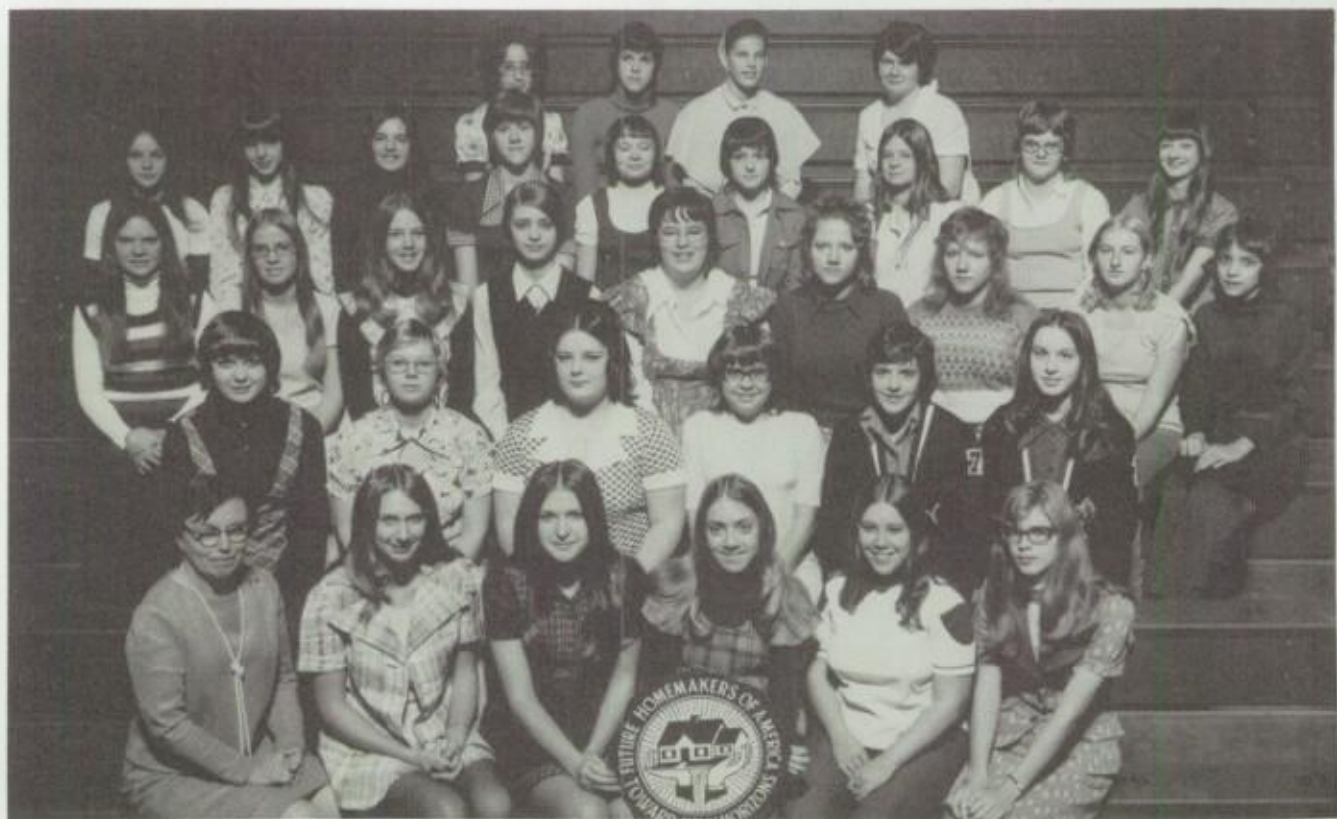

FHA and SSS are under the direction of Mrs. Jean Barton. Each club, while having its own separate activities, also works with the other towards happiness in the Rossville community. Among yearly projects were needy baskets, servicemen's boxes, Home Ec style show, coatcheck, Halloween and Easter parties for the elementary, candy sales, teachers' favors, the Ideal Lady program, Heart Fund collections, the val pal program, bake sale, and the Sadie Hawkins dance. Even though one may think he never has time enough, there should always be time to take sunshine and happiness to others.

Former Member Now National Vice-Pres.

To every FFA member there is a time to learn and a time to apply his skills; a time to dream of owning his own farm, and a time to work toward that goal.

Early in the school year Rossville FFA threw a congratulations party for former member, recently installed as National FFA Vice-President, Keith Mohler. On November 3 FFA held its second annual steak fry and netted $700. Keith spoke at the Parent-Son Banquet. Indiana State officers were present also.

Themes Coincide

Selling cokes and candy bars at the junior high and freshman basketball games was again Latin Club's money making project. The group also sponsored a booth at the Fall Festival.

On March 27, the club members and their guest were treated to popcorn and coke during the movie Ulysses.

"To everything there is a season" was not only the theme of the yearbook but also the theme for the Latin Club banquet, April 5. The new members were sold as slaves to their elders.

On the Thursday following the banquet, Suzanne Skiles, Byron Irmeger, and Janet Wilson began their journey to Rome, sponsored by the Junior Classical League. They returned April 20.

Musicians Get New Instructors

Kazoos, white boots, blue robes, red and white collars, calendar sales, too large band uniforms, freezing at the Frankfort parade . . . These things greeted new band and choral instructors Jerry Disney and Rheta Cadell. The 1973 Christmas program was snowed out so the music department performed on February 21. The high school band and girls' corp marched in the cold December 1 parade at Frankfort. The County Music Festival was held at Clinton Prairie on March 15, 1974.

Drama Club Builds Play

"Did you eat my false eyelash? Has anyone seen my play book? Such are the sounds which filter through the air before the annual Drama Club play is on stage and ready for action. Student talent is not only displayed in the play but also in the Variety Show. Both result from Drama Club committees working diligently to help make the program a success. Actors, actresses, ushers, directors, producers, set builders, and all involved learn by show time that cooperation is the key. Although spectators and participants leave the production satisfied, the walls of the stage still whisper, "On with the show."

Eight Reach State In 1974 Season

The 1974 23-man speech team kept Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Eiler on their toes. This meant 23 programs to be developed. This also meant extra work for members who decided to compete in more than one category or change their programs. This meant getting up between 5:30 and 7:00 to go to 11 seasonal meets, Sectional, Regional, and State. Rossville held the home meet this year on December 1. Twenty-three schools participated, involving 450 contestants. Rossville placed 5th in the sweepstakes. Twenty-one Rossville students entered the Speech Sectional at Twin Lakes. Twelve went on to the Lafayette Jeff Regional, and eight of these twelve competed in State Finals at Logansport. Five of these finalists placed. There was a time to try and worry and a time to be rewarded. The Speech Banquet was held April 17.

COACH EILER draws varied reactions from homeroom speech team members during an activity period meeting.

FOLLOWING THE Rossville Speech tournament, winners and coaches pose in the office. Rossville took fifth place.

Eight New Members Inducted

It was an early Thursday morning, March 21, 1974. Sixteen parents were evading the subject of National Honor Society.

Eight students came unknowingly to school and were inducted to NHS in terms of leadership, scholarship, character, service, and a 3.5 average. These eight students were Janice Mohler, Rene Jones, Marlys Voss, Craig Stanley, Mark Thomas, Susan Starnes, Sandra Stewart, and Janet Wilson.

ONE FUNCTION OF NHS is to host the Honors' Day Convocation in May. Here Marsha Brovont helps Miss King distribute awards.

SENIOR CLASS Valedictorian Marsha Brovont prepares for initiation of 1974 National Honor Society members.

Student Council Sponsors Folk Singers

This year three seniors, one junior, two sophomores, and two freshmen represented their classes in the Student Council. Spirit buttons and ribbons and the pop machine were money making projects for the group. Highlights of the 1973-1974 Student Council were Homecoming ceremonies and a convocation featuring singers "North" and "West". Money made this year will go toward three convocations planned for next year.

MR. PEARL holds the attention of Student Council members as he expresses his opinion on the subject at hand.

Now Spot Records RHS Spirit

"Well, what are we going to put in our next issue? Any ideas? No ideas Okay, who can help put it out this week? Any volunteers? One, two . . . Well!!!"

Bonnie Gascho, editor of the High Spot, ran into this problem often, but the newspaper always seemed to get out. This year the High Spot staff tried out a new idea. The first issue of the paper was called the Now Spot which concentrated on the urgent issues at school. Although there weren't too many issues produced, the quality was good and the paper was still an important part of school life. The paper again was sent to a regular press to be printed so the students could receive more attractive copy and pictures.

STAFF EDITOR BONNIE GASCHO hunts for a past issue of the High Spot for reference of an unknown procedure.

Egly, Rochelle Dutter, Page Editor Dave Tislow, and Peggy Gangwer.

THE EDITOR and her staff members go over past issues of High Spot for ideas on current productions.

FRED BROWN takes advantage of one of the opportunities given students to expand their knowledge.

DEBBIE WARD works alone in Room J-12, writing some body copy for the next issue of High Spot.

Five Section Editors Work Together

Your yearbook—our yearbook. The '74 staff and editors learned a lot of techniques involved in the production of a yearbook and worked hard, but there was also a time to laugh and have fun. In previous years there has been only one editor and her assistant editor. A new idea was exercised this year. Five section editors worked together to form the book.

The Lars staff brought in $40 from the '73 Fall Festival booth and set a new record of $2200 from ad sales. Subscriptions were the final means of income. There was a time to prepare and now a time to publish.

King, Connie Kintner, Kenny Harris, Rose Bowen, Greg Enoch, Janice Goris, Bill Davenport, Larry LePage, Cindy Skiles, Julie Jackson, and Kathy Miller.

EDITOR VELMA WAGONER presents a collage at the special recognition convocation honoring Mrs. Rodkey on May 3.

ADS EDITOR Colleen Brenneman deliberates on the introduction pages alone in the little Lars room.

SPONSOR MISS KING and Editor Curt Perry look over proof sheets and try to decide on pictures for the yearbook.

EDITOR COLLEEN BRENNEMAN looks at the selection of watches while selling a yearbook ad to Arden Cripe.

PARAGON REPRESENTATIVE Larry Glaze explains some yearbook information to sponsor Deidre King and staff editors.

THE SALE OF OLD PICTURES at the Lars' booth seems to be captivating the attention of Kip Sloan and Carl Chezem.

People

To every life there is a time,
And a place under heaven:
a time for learning,
a time for living,
a time to quarrel,
a time to reconcile;
a time to understand,
a time to be understood;
a time for growing up,
and a time to feel.

Seniors Look Ahead—Some

People I love are with me all the while,
Wherever I may walk, they go with me.
A dancing thought of one persuades a smile,
Another's interest shares the things I see.

Companioned ever, even in the night
When sleep evades, I have a wealth of reels

Projected on the screen of mind's delight;

I share a thought that someone distant feels,

People I love, an ever-growing bond!
All warm and cherished, close within my heart,

Forever bound by things we understand,

And by these bonds, not ever quite apart.

So rich am I, in love and goodness known,

My steps are bouyant . . . I am not alone.

HELEN MONTGOMERY works in the Superintendents's office, keeping the school records in order and assisting in the needs of the faculty.

SUPERINTENDENT ROBERT EGLY heads the Rossville Consolidated School System in all of its ramifications.

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS Kenneth Frey, Ross Milner, and George Kamstra act as the decision making unit in the school system.

PRINCIPAL JAMES MONTGOMERY directs the educational functions and maintains order in grades one through six.

MARY LOU CRANE keeps the business end of high school life moving as she balances the books of all organizations.

PRINCIPAL BILL TISLOW supervises the activities of the junior high and high school classes and organizations.

Paperwork Handled By Pro Staff

Without the aid of the eight administrative members of RHS, the students would find the school year much more trying. They manage our budget, count our lunch tickets, deliver our morning announcements, and decide all those big questions none of us understand. They make our school days a little easier going. They are friends many of us will remember long after graduation.

To every school day there is a purpose and an administration seeking to better it.

Standing: Roger Jenkins, Kathryn Flory, Karen Mohler, Marsha Geraldts, Rhonda Large, Peggy Gangwer, Pam Walker, Connie Kintner, and Judy Beard. Center: Craig Enoch.

CINDY LARGE, third grader, chooses from a wide selection of Nancy Drew books from the elementary library.

MARK HINESLEY AND MARTY WOLFE anxiously wait for their books to be checked out by elementary librarian Mitch Shively.

THE NEEDS OF THE ELEMENTARY STUDENTS and faculty are taken care of by Mrs. Wanita Enoch, librarian.

Libraries Offer Educational Opportunity

The Rossville Elementary and High School Libraries offer students the necessary sources for compiling information on reports and term papers. Encyclopedias, dictionaries, atlases, magazines, and nonfictional sources provide a varied background for references.

The libraries also offer a selection of fictional material to meet the interests of the individual student. These books offer the student a momentary release from the tension of life.

In the words of Emily Dickinson

There is no frigate like a book
To take us lands away,
Nor any coursers like a page
Of prancing poetry.

This traverse may the poorest take
Without oppress of toll;
How Frugal is the chariot
That bears a human soul!

MRS. MIRIAM SENGER, librarian, provides an efficient library to meet the needs of RHS students and faculty.

JUNIOR GARY KELLY checks Reader's Guide in the library as another possibility for a magazine source.

THE CARD FILE provides a direct source of information for locating a book for Senior Larry LePage.

Keith Maggart, Mr. Paul Hufford, Mr. Stan Emens, Mr. George Stewart, and Mr. Carroll Kessler. Missing: Mr. Keith Rothenbarger.

Standing: Mr. Ralph Harshman and Mr. Clarence Timmons. Seated: Mr. Kenny Butler.

"BUT WHICH ONE IS MINE?" wonder students as they approach the waiting school bus line-up after school.

NIGHT CUSTODIANS Ruby and John Frantz take care of cleaning the elementary and high school classrooms.

Mrs. Gladys Eller, Mrs. Dorothy Miller, Mrs. Ann Beisel, Mrs. Leona Conaster, Mrs. Geraldine Mag-gart, Mrs. Eileen Stewart, Mrs. Pauline Mosson, and Mrs. Betty Metzger.

People Behind the Scene Keep RHS Order

Good lighting?
Sturdy desks?
Clean dishes?
Empty wastebaskets?
Clean restrooms?
Waxed floors?
Hot meals?
Clean halls?
Well-balanced diets?
Reliable buses?
Adequate heating?
Shoveled walks?
Mowed grass?
Clean windows?
Safe rides?
Air-conditioned classrooms?
Vacuumed carpets?
Personable people?
All can be found at RHS through the efforts of the cooks, bus drivers, and custodians.

ANYONE REMEMBER the 18 inch snowfall? While students had the early Christmas break, janitors had to clear the way to the RHS doors.

"BUT WHERE DOES IT ALL GO?" asks an elementary student as she questions Ann Beisel on the disposal system.

AN ENDLESS BATTLE is keeping the floors spotless, but Mr. "Speck" and Mr. Harshman take on the challenge.

To everything there is a season, and the '73-'74 yearbook season has come to a close. Of course, it was hard work, but we had so much fun putting it together that we hope you enjoy it as much as we have.

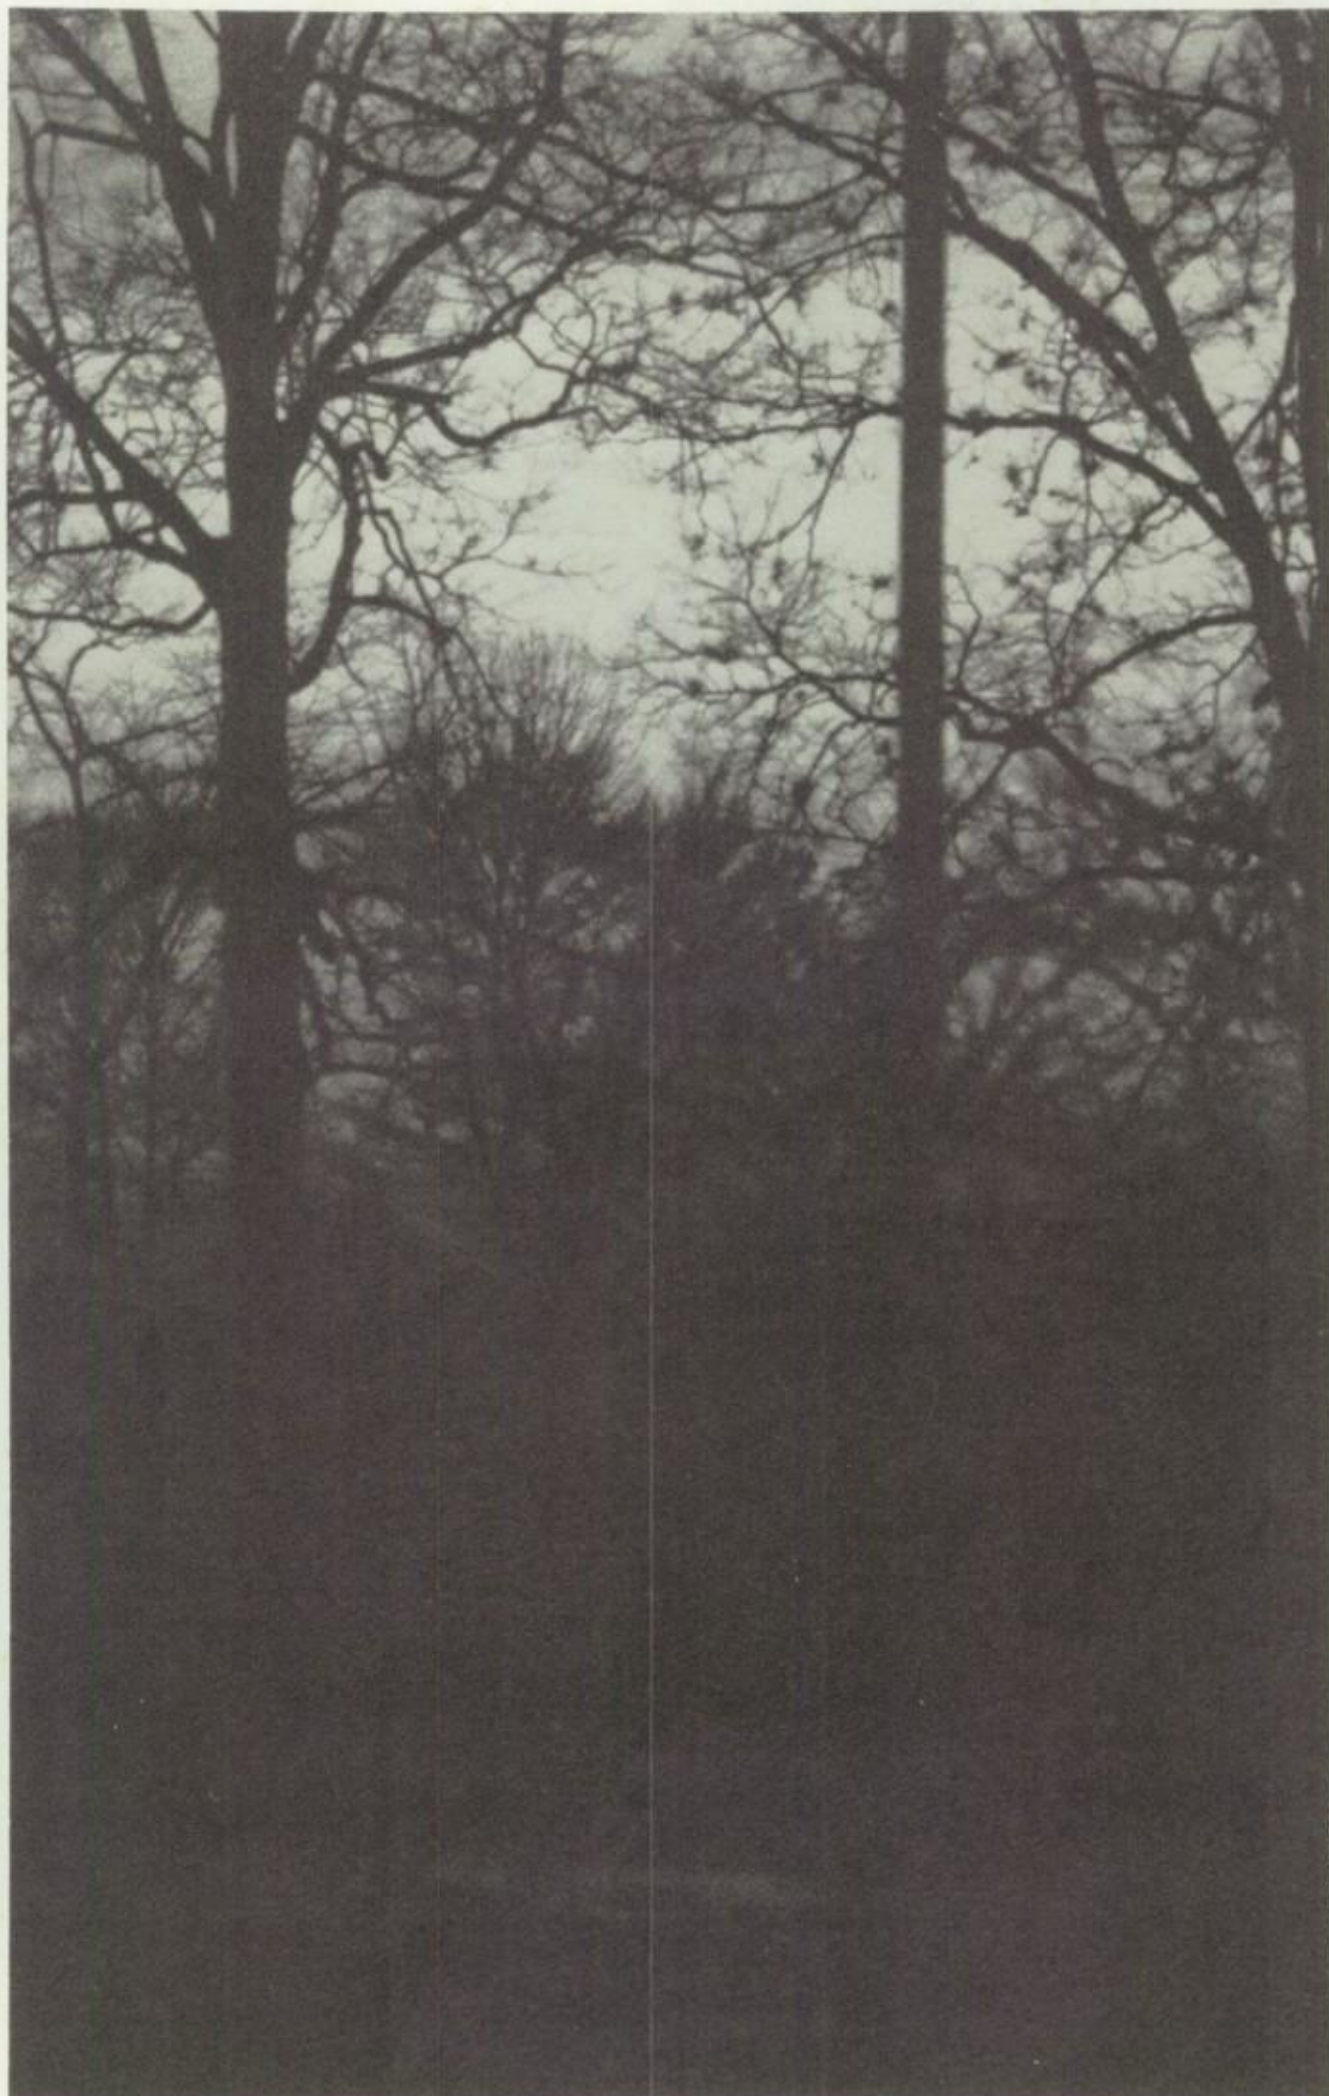

We editors wish to thank the staff and faculty for all of their cooperation and tolerance. We would also like to thank Mr. Tislow and Mary Lou for signing our passes for selling ads during A-period and Gullions for all the pictures they took for us. Also, thanks to Larry Glaze, our Paragon representative for answering all of our questions and putting up with our weird ideas.

But most of all, we would like to extend a special thanks to our sponsor, Miss King, for all the work, help, and fun she has provided for us this year. Thanks again to everyone.

Dave, Curt, Kathy,
Velma, and Colleen

For Everything There Is a Season And a Time For Every Purpose Under Heaven

For everything there is a season and
for every season an end.
Yet for every end there is a new beginning and at each new beginning there is life.
This year: just a season out of time—
A short season.

. . . and a time for every purpose
under heaven.
